ROSIE'S RUM LIST

If you're looking for a taste of the Caribbean, look no further than our selection of rums! Our menu features three distinct styles of rum, each with their own unique flavour profile and production process: English, French, and Spanish.

ENGLISH STYLE

English style rum is rich and full-bodied, with notes of caramel and molasses. Made from molasses, a byproduct of sugar production, it's typically distilled using a traditional pot still method. This creates a fuller-bodied rum with complex flavours and a drier taste compared to other styles.

RECOMMENDATION: PUSSEY'S "BRITISH NAVY" FROM GUYANA

17

FRENCH STYLE

For a lighter, smoother option, try our French style rum. Characterised by a more floral and fruity flavour profile with hints of spice and vanilla, it's made from fresh sugarcane juice that's fermented using wild yeasts naturally present in the environment. Distilled using a column still, this more modern method produces a delicate and smooth rum.

RECOMMENDATION: RHUM J.M XO FROM MARTINIQUE

29

SPANISH STYLE

If you have a sweet tooth, you'll love our Spanish style rum. Known for its sweet taste, often compared to brandy or sherry, it can be made from either molasses or sugarcane juice and is fermented using a mix of different yeasts. The distillation method can vary, depending on the desired flavour profile, resulting in a range of sweet and complex rums.

RECOMMENDATION: DIPLOMATICO RESERVA EXCLUSIVA FROM VENEZUELA
